MILITARY MENTORING PROGRAM DISCLAIMER AND RELEASE OF CLAIMS

I acknowledge by completing and returning this form that I am participating in the PMI-Metrolina Military Mentoring Program on my own accord and that such participation is strictly voluntary and will abide by the guidelines listed below in the Purpose and Scope section. As a participant in this PMI sponsored program I also agree to abide by the PMI Code of Ethics. I realize that all information provided to me about the Mentor is not provided by PMI-Metrolina based on their personal knowledge and experience. I understand that PMI-Metrolina does not independently test, evaluate, or verify the accuracy or completeness of any information provided by the Mentors, and that I should not use any material, methods, information, techniques, opinions or procedures expressed, presented or demonstrated without evaluating my needs.

PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The PMI-Metrolina Military Mentorship Program is here to help provide assistance to active duty military, Guard or Reserves and veterans who may or may not be members of the PMI-Metrolina Chapter of the Project Management Institute. Having a credential through PMI is not requirement for participation.

Mentor Definition: An experienced professional in a project management related field or specific knowledge area that can provide guidance and leadership.

Mentee Definition: A active duty military, Guard or Reserves and veteran that requests assistance in a specific field or knowledge area related to project management.

The mentor will:

Provide guidance and direction for studying for a PMI exam

Provide an expert opinion on project work if assistance is needed

- ☒ Provide information concerning PMI-Metrolina and the ways you can become involved
- ☒ Offer advice concerning marketable skills in a specific industry

The mentee will NOT:

- ☒ Use this opportunity to sell services or products
- ☒ Pressure mentors for job positions, letters of recommendation, or a volunteer role with PMI Metrolina
- ☒ Verbal, physical, or emotional abuse is not tolerated from either party and if reported to the Military Liaison Director then it will be referred to law enforcement as deemed reasonable ☒ Use the power dynamic to ask for favors that are inappropriate and/or outside of a professional capacity

Professional behavior is expected by all participants during each meeting no matter the medium used for communication. Any inappropriate behavior should be reported to the Military Liaison Director by sending an e-mail to Militaryliaisondirector@pmi-metrolina.com. The mentor or mentee is expected to terminate communication if they feel that the situation has turned unprofessional and report it to the Military Liaison Director immediately. The Military Liaison Director will investigate each claim reported and may need to involve law enforcement depending on the circumstances. Unprofessional behavior will not be tolerated.

CONSEQUENCES

☒ PMI-Metrolina Members with a credential – If found to have promoted, participated in, or instigated unprofessional behavior then the member will be banned from PMI-Metrolina meetings for six months or more depending on the severity of the offense. Egregious behavior will result in the termination of membership with PMI-Metrolina and the inability to participate in or attend future meetings. The behavior will also be reported to our national counterpart, the Project Management Institute so that they may initiate any sanctions they deem necessary.

☒ Active duty military, Guard or Reserves and veterans without a credential – If found to have promoted, participated in, or instigated unprofessional behavior will be banned from PMI-Metrolina meetings for six months or more depending on the severity of the offense. Egregious behavior will result in the termination of any membership with PMI-Metrolina and the inability to participate in or attend future meetings.
